Flamenco Guitar Angel "Reverendo" Muñoz - Cajon

Several of Paco Pena's beautiful studio-recordings are presented to an appreciative audience in London's famed Wigmore Hall on this excellent CD. Paco's playing here departs drastically from some of his recorded toques, straying from what his listeners are accustomed to hearing but always playing with great skill and touch. The last two tracks feature Angel Munoz on cajon which give Paco's solos a nice variation of traditional themes. Another example of Paco's genius which puts him at the pinnacle of flamenco guitar playing today. ---New England Pat, amazon.com
