Nataly Rivera best known as Naëla (born July 17, 1990, Bogota, Colombia), is a Colombian singer, author and songwriter. She made her music debut as the opening act in the show that Mexican group Camila gave in Bogota in 2010. Followed this, she released her debut single No Quiero Estar Sin Ti belongs to her debut album Naëla. On 2011, she released two new single of her album, Esta Noche Mando Yo and Muero Por Amarte. On April 21, 2013, Naëla confirmed in her official Twitter page that she would be part of the showcase and previous conferences of Billboard Latin Music Awards' meetings to be held on April 25, 2013 in Miami, Florida[20] with Carlos Vives, Alejandra Guzmán, Gloria Estefan, Sebastián Yebes, Kany García, Carla Morrison, Olga Tañón, Beatriz Luengo, Mauricio Rivera, and other artists.

She released her single Quizas, as her first single released exclusively in Spain. The single was premiered on July 1 at Cadena Dial and on September 18, she confirmed the song Besar El Cielo as the next single of the album. She was selected by Carlos Vives as his opening act in Madrid and Barcelona in October during his Corazón Profundo Tour.

In May 2014 she twice participated in the Evento 40 made by the Colombian radio station Los 40 Principales, where she sang songs of her album Imparable. On September 8, she released her new single, a cover of "Bazar", originally sang by Mexican girl group Flans. On September 22, 2014 she released digitally her first remix album The Remixes, which featured remixes of her second album' songs.
