Vocal-instrumental ensemble formed in January 1969 in Warsaw under the name of the "Group O!". First line-up: Zbigniew Karwański (saxophone), Aleksander Michalski (saxophone), Andrzej Mikołajczak (organ), Andrzej Nebeski (drums), Hubert Szymczyński (bass guitar, vocals). He made his debut on Feb. 11, 1969, in "Telewizyjny Ekran Młodych", which - by way of plebiscite - has been given a name derived from the title of the first hit "My ABC". In April 1969 the band was joined by singers: Halina Frąckowiak, Wojciech Gąssowski, Jerzy Kozłowski. He took part in recording the music for the film Various - Muzyka Z Filmu Polowanie Na Muchy (director: Andrzej Wajda). In 1973 was disbanding.
