Eklektyczny radykalny fem-power-jazzy-punk (Kraków/ Sejny/ Warszawa). Grają w tercecie: bas, perkusja i wokal. Dotychczas wykorzystywały teksty funkcjonujące w tradycji ludowej i poezję tworzących współcześnie nie poetek polskich, a teraz sięgają również do poezji obcojęzycznej. Nieustannie o tym, co kobiet dotyczy i co je dotyka. Wspólnota doświadczeń, bunt przez pokolenia, moce, niemoce, zabawa i smutek. Nowe sensory na przecięciach. rhythm section is absolutely enough, especially that good rhythm section. There are all sorts of bass sounds, from the regular solid bass line, through distortion up to wah wah. Drumming is jazzy, unpredictable and very sophisticated. The vocals are harsh and raw as everyday life for women out there in men dominated society.

This is a live recording from one year ago, and it sounds as if it was recorded in the studio. With this kind of music you are not counting on any studio effects that can hide your imperfections and position you spot on in the timeline of each track. With this music you are counting on 100% live performance, which is flawless, inspirational and thought provoking. And this is POCHWALONE.

Lyrically they use a mixture of contemporary women poetry and old folk songs orchestrated the punk way.

They are touring Europe so you still have a chance to see them today and tomorrow. You should. ---sanctuspropaganda.com
