I am a huge fan of Chris's music and so was greatly surprised at the mediocrity of his latest album. I don't know why it's called Footsteps 2 as it has no connection whatsoever with its predecessor, Footsteps. I absolutely adored Footsteps but Footsteps 2 is just Chris singing other peoples' songs, and quite frankly I prefer the originals.

Me thinks Chris should stick with what Chris does best, writing his own lyrics and music. In
