UK two CD collection. Ann Peebles once described herself as '99 pounds of natural-born goodness and 99 pounds of soul' and as this definitive 44 track collection demonstrates, she is all of that... and more. Steeped in the Memphis '70s sound of Hi Records, the diminutive singer/songwriter was responsible for 16 U.S R&B chart singles, all appearing here, including the classic 'I Can't Stand The Rain', once described by the late John Lennon as "one of the greatest Soul records of all time." Soul supreme from an original Soul sister of the first order. Music Club Deluxe. ---Editorial Reviews
