The show starts out with a bit of source tape damage, but if the listener is patient, the sound problems clear up and the show, overall, is of very good sound quality. It is also one of the finer performances of The Wall by the band.

One of the funnier moments in roio recording happens during "Nobody Home." At approximately 2:28 into the track, where a female security employee asks our taper, "Is that a pipe you've got there?" The taper pretends not to hear her, so she asks him again. He
