Cousin Joe (piano);
Jerome VanJones (organ);
Robert Plunkett, Bob Plunkett, Ted Harvey (drums).

All songs written by Jimmy Dawkins except "Ode To Billy Joe" (Bobbie Gentry).

Jimmy Dawkins' infrequent albums are always a joy, and that was the case when he made his first sojourn to Europe in 1970 and recorded LPs for Black & Blue, Vogue, and Excello in France and England. This disc features eight numbers pairing Dawkins and the great Gatemouth Brown and another four matching him with equally sensational Otis Rush. The Brown/Dawkins tandem duel, match, and challenge each other as Dawkins' sometimes enigmatic, sometimes bemused and often compelling vocals set the stage for their instrumental
