Mississippi Shakedown - I Don't Know What I'd Do Without You But I Sure Would Like To Find Out (2010)

01. We've all got our cross to bear play 02. I don't know what I'd do without you, but I sure would like to find out 03. One door shuts, another door slams 04. Bad news travels fast (good news travels slow) 05. I wish you the best 06. Even my enemies love me 07. Gotta get lucky sometime play 08. Ring of fire 09. How can I be thirsty when I had so much to drink last night 10. I'm God's gift to women (just ask me I'll tell you) 11. Use it or lose it 12. So long

Musicians: Jeff Cripps - slide guitar and vocals John Gannon – bass Derek Smith – drums

Mississippi Shakedown was created for 3 reasons:

1. our insatiable love of the music of Elmore James
2. the love of the sound of a distorted Slide Guitar
3. Bruce Iglauer from Alligator Records (US), the world's leading blues label, liked some songs that Jeff Cripps (our guitarist) had written for other bands... so then it was 2 phone calls... hey let's start a band! We did and we have.

When we started our strategy was to play Anywhere for Anything, just to develop our sound... it worked and we've got it! More style than the (unsunk) Titanic!

Mississippi Shakedown is a band with a minimum of FUSS with a maximum of EFFECT. A 3 piece unit led by blues rock charged SLIDE GUITAR... with a "Don't Bore Us, Get To The Chorus" attitude. With influence from the deep south, these guys have heart. This band was not created to play in a restaurant. Just take a listen to their current CD, Mississippi Shakedown, all original songs, with an original attitude. The band takes no prisoners on their journey to Shakedown an audience. Once seen, never forgotten, once heard ALWAYS loved!!!

With every GRAND performance, it has been proven without a shadow of a doubt, Mississippi Shakedown never fails to please an audience, whether it be an audience of blues afficienados or Smokey Pub Joe Public - Mississippi Shakedown always hits the mark. ---
