

Crossroadz – 15:0 The Best Of Crossroadz 2005

Wpisany przez bluesever

Niedziela, 09 Październik 2011 08:46 - Zmieniony Piątek, 20 Listopad 2020 13:10

Crossroadz – 15:0 The Best Of Crossroadz (2005)

1. Blues Lives in Russia 2. V odinochestve est' kajf 3. Rock'n'Roll's my prayer 4. Diamond Rain 5. Hang on thru the nite 6. Vtornik play 7. Sant Get Away 8. By My Hand 9. Southern woman 10. VIO (VIO) 11. Poor man's blues

play

12. The song 13. Berlin Blues 14. Skol'ko mozhno terpet'.

Musicians: Aleksandr Toropkin – drums, backing vocals Mikhail Savkin – guitar Andrey Butuzov – bass Sergei Voronov – guitar, vocals

The Crossroadz were formed by the famous russian blues guitarist/singer Sergei Voronov (Voronoff) in 1990, performed in the UK, France, Germany, Russia, Ukraine, Bielorrussia, Lettland, Estonia, Lithuania, Kazakhstan a.o. They've been the first rock band in the 20th century to tour China (23 cities), have recorded 5 albums (with Trema/Sony Music, SNC Records, Mistery Of Sound, Music X)- their first CD 'Between' came out 1993 in Paris - play both original music and covers. The band still perform in the original line up with Sergei on lead guitar and vocal, Mikhail Savkin on guitar, Andrey Butuzov on bass and Sasha Toropkin on drums/back.voc. For the last 7 years Misha Vladimirov plays the mouth harp with the band. 1996 The Crossroadz opened for ZZ Top in Moscow's Green Theater. During their club tour in London in 2006 the band was joined by Woodstock veteran Barry «The Fish» Melton for 3 shows. The Crossroadz are steady headliners at Russian blues festivals.

By the end of 2008 Sergei finished recording his solo album in London's Sphere Studios with Chris Kimsey as producer. The supporting band on this session was: Robin Le Mersurier (guitar), Hal Lindes (guitar), Adam Green on guitar, Jerry Meehan (Bass), Richard Causon (keyb.), Paddy Milner (piano, strings and horn arrangements), Jeoff Dugmore on drums, Adriano Adewale (percussion), Hazel Fernandes, Beverlei Brown and Errol Reid (backing vocals), John Radford, Ben Somers and Bob Dowell (The Horn Stars)+a special appearance by Gary Moore (on "Running") and Marc Ford. The new record called IRONY came out on Moroz Records in Moscow. The launch gig on June 25th 2009 was a hell of a show and went on for more than 2 hours. Russian rockers Garik Sukachev and Killday, and Paddy Milner from London joint Sergei and The Crossroadz on stage. ---myspace.com/voroncrossroadz download (mp3 @320 kbs):

Crossroadz – 15:0 The Best Of Crossroadz 2005

Wpisany przez bluesever

Niedziela, 09 Październik 2011 08:46 - Zmieniony Piątek, 20 Listopad 2020 13:10

yandex mediafire ulozto gett bayfiles

back