This is the CD that launched Mud Morganfield's career in the UK and Europe. He gained his first UK radio play on BBC Radio 2 with his version of Forty Days and Forty Nights from this album, attracted the attention of a major agent, and gained much high profile work and a BBC Radio 2 session. Blue Filth Records are both proud to see the album LEGALLY back on the market and of the great reviews it is gaining across Europe and in the USA after investing so much effort money, time and trust in Mr Morganfield and his talent. Please rest assured that Mud Morganfield will be receiving the full percentage of royalties from the sale of this CD as agreed with him in the contract he signed in 2008. ---amazon.com

"The Blues is in my blood is an opportunity to rediscover the live authenticity that has always characterised the Chicago Blues. During the show Mud is the consummate professional performing eight tracks of pure and classic Chicago Blues, Walking Through The Park, Hoochie Coochie Man, Mannish Boy, I'm Ready, just to name a few, and gives off a relentless groove that is warmly appreciated by the audience present. A chance to immerse yourself in the golden age of Chicago and his music". ---Bluestime.it
