

Bobby Parker - Montreux Jazz Festival 2004

Wpisany przez bluesever

Poniedziałek, 25 Marzec 2013 17:56 - Zmieniony Poniedziałek, 09 Wrzesień 2013 13:15

Bobby Parker - Montreux Jazz Festival 2004

01. Straight up No Chaser 02. Break it Up 03. Breaking up Somebody's Home 04. Nothing but the Blues 05. So Glad I Found You 06. I Ain't Superstitious 07. It's Unfair 08. Going Down Slow 09. Chill Out 10. Mellow Down Easy 11. Watch Your Step Line-Up: Bobby Parker – guitar, lead vocals Ken Wenzel – saxophone Dane Paul Russel – harmonica Steve Cecil – keyboard Andrew Padula – bass Dion Clay – drums + Carlos Santana – guitar Chester Thompson – keyboards Andy Vargas - vocals

"He is one of the few remaining guitarists on the planet who can pierce your heart and soothe your soul, he inspired me to learn to play the guitar". This is how the master of ceremony Carlos Santana speaks about Louisiana-born Bobby Parker, an orgasmic blues man who began an international career in the 50s collaborating with T-Bone Walker and Otis Williams. Acknowledged by the greatest, Bobby Parker has crossed the paths of Buddy Holly, Chuck Berry, Little Richard and even Led Zeppelin. Well, Ok - that was via a guitar riff which Jimmy Page plundered from his title "Watch You Step" when he wrote "Moby Dick". But it gives you an idea of what he's about, doesn't it? --- montreuxjazzlive.com

download: uploaded anonfiles 4shared mega ziddu divshare mediafire yandex mixturecloud

back