

John Earl Walker - Come Over Here! (2008)

Wpisany przez bluesever
Sobota, 23 Listopad 2013 16:41 -

---

John Earl Walker - Come Over Here! (2008)

1 Tess's Shuffle 02:59    2 The Showdown 05:46    3 Come Over Here 03:35
4 My Last Goodbye 05:10    5 Airport Blues 06:54    6 Backdoor Romance
04:22    7 Please Pretty Baby 05:01    8 The World's A Prison 04:18    9 Poor Boy
Blues 06:37    10 Nightwalker 04:04    Musicians: John Earl Walker (vocals, guitar)
Tommy Keys (piano) Bobby Infante (drums)

Guitarist, lyricist, and vocalist John Earl Walker became enamored with the blues at age 13, after being exposed to records by legendary guitarists of the genre such as Albert King, Magic Sam, T-Bone Walker, and Freddie King. By his 16th birthday, Walker had already begun playing guitar at local events and in clubs whenever possible. In 1967 he formed the blues-rock band the Plastic People, which included bassist Pete Harris and guitarist Joey Tremelo. Three years later the Plastic People changed their name to Plum Nelly, recorded several albums for Capitol Records in the mid-'70s, and gained national exposure opening shows for B.B. King, Muddy Waters, Alice Cooper, and Iggy Pop, to name just a few. Following the breakup of Plum Nelly in 1976, Walker formed the first of several incarnations of the John Earl Walker Band. The most stable lineup was initiated in 1990 when former Housepainters drummer Bobby Infante was added, joining Harris, Tremelo, and Walker. They released their debut CD, I'm Leaving You, in 2002, followed by Little Miss Perfect and People Are Talkin' two years later. All three discs are available on the New York-based Orchard label. Now his greatest album "Come Over Here" is here, dont miss it thats all I can say. ---Al Campbel, Rovi download: uploaded anonfiles yandex 4shared solidfiles mediafire mega filecloudio

back