

Buddy Guy - Montreux Jazz Festival 2004

Wpisany przez bluesever
Sobota, 23 Marzec 2013 17:34 -

Buddy Guy - Montreux Jazz Festival 2004

01. Good Morning Little School Girl 02. Louise McGhee 03. Done Got Old 04. Hoochie Coochie Man 05. Fever 06. Drowning on Dry Land 07. Stormy Monday 8. Jam Session 1 09. So Many Roads, So Many Trains 10. Jam Session 2 Line-Up: Buddy Guy – guitar, vocals Jason Moynihan – saxophone Marty Sammon – keyboards Ric Hall – guitar Orlando Wright – bass Tim Austin – drums + Carlos Santana – guitar Bobby Parker – guitar Nile Rodgers – guitar Eric Demmer – saxophone Barbara Morrison – vocals

With his theatrical personality, his tortured voice and energetic playing, Buddy Guy is a living legend. And yet, there was a time when he could not land a decent contract. Time was his side as, today, he is known as one of the greatest guitarist of all times, just like his mentor and idol, Muddy Waters. From his debut in the 50s on the stage of Bâton Rouge and his collaboration with Clapton, to his appearance at the Montreux Jazz Festival in 1974 and the release of his latest album Sweet Tea, Buddy Guy has continued to rule supreme over Chicago Blues. --- montreuxjazzlive.com

download: uploaded 4shared gett yandex hostuje

back