

Otis Spann – The Complete Blue Horizon Sessions (2006)

Wpisany przez bluesever

Czwartek, 29 Październik 2009 16:46 - Zmieniony Poniedziałek, 10 Czerwiec 2013 15:01

Otis Spann – The Complete Blue Horizon Sessions (2006)

Disc: 1 01. Can't Do Me No Good 02. Bloody Murder 03. Someday Soon Baby 04. Hungry Country Girl 05. My Love Depends On You 06. Walkin' 07. It Was A Big Thing 08. Temperature Is Rising (100.2F) 09. Dig You 10. No More Doggin' 11. Ain't Nobody's Business 12. She Needs Some Loving 13. I Need Some Air 14. Someday Baby Disc: 2 01. No More Doggin' 02. No More Doggin' 03. I Need Some Air 04. Walkin' 05. Walkin' 06. Blues For Hippies 07. Temperature Is Rising (98.8F) 08. Someday Baby 09. Someday Baby 10. Someday Baby 11. She Needs Some Loving 12. Dig You 13. Dig You 14. She's Out Of Sight

Personnel: Otis Spann (vocals, piano); Danny Kirwan, Johnny Shines (guitar); Walter Horton (harmonica); Willie Dixon (upright bass); John McVie (bass guitar); Clifton James, Mick Fleetwood, S.P. Leary (drums).

Although Otis Spann will always be known as the piano player in the Muddy Waters Band, his solo work should not be overlooked. Possessing a beautifully expressive voice, Spann was also a facile songwriter, and freed of the restrictions inherent in a working electric blues band, his solo sides find him stretching out on piano as well. This two-disc set is a true treasure, containing a badly needed remixed version of 1969's The Biggest Thing Since Colossus LP plus several alternate takes, false starts, and unreleased songs. The Colossus sessions took place in January 1969 (there are a couple tracks here that date from late in 1968), a little over a year before Spann's death in 1970, and found him working with Blue Horizon label owner Mike Vernon and the Peter Green-era version of Fleetwood Mac (who Vernon managed). Spann is in fine voice here, delivering artful blues numbers that are just this side of jazz in execution, and the Fleetwood Mac boys are surprisingly sympathetic to it, making this a delightful release and one that no real fan of Spann should be without. ---Steve Leggett, Rovi download: uploaded anonfiles 4shared yandex mega mixturecloud mediafire zidd u

Otis Spann – The Complete Blue Horizon Sessions (2006)

Wpisany przez bluesever

Czwartek, 29 Październik 2009 16:46 - Zmieniony Poniedziałek, 10 Czerwiec 2013 15:01

back