Gato Barbieri's first recording in a decade finds his distinctive (and always passionate) tenor tone still mostly intact. It is nice to have Barbieri back on the scene again. —Scott Yanow, Rovi

I love the entire cd. The two instrumentals mentioned are my favorites. Gato Barbieri plays the sax with so much passion and the listener certainly feels that emotion. The music has a wonderful latin beat, makes you want to dance and is very romantic. If you love the sax and who doesn't, you'll love this cd. The artist started playing from the age of 8 yrs. His sound is absolutely captivating. ---Diane Korn, jazzreview.com
